THE REGIONAL CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON ECONOMIC CRIME 2010

JUNE 22 – 24, 2010 □ SHANGRI-LA HOTEL, KUALA LUMPUR

We are pleased to inform members that the Companies Commission of Malaysia (SSM) in association with the Centre for International Documentation on Economic and Organised Crime (CIDOEC) will be organising the Regional Cambridge International Symposium on Economic Crime 2010 with the theme “Attaining Corporate Resilience Through Governance and Integrity” on June 22 – 24, 2010 at the Shangri-La Hotel Kuala Lumpur.

The Symposium aims to offer delegates an experience in understanding the real issues involved in preventing and controlling economically motivated serious crimes.

MICPA is a supporting organisation of the Symposium and members of MICPA who register for the Conference will be able to enjoy a preferential registration fee of RM1,800 for the three-day Symposium.

The proposed topics for the 3-day Symposium include:

- The Financial Crisis and Stewardship of People’s Wealth
- Directors’ Responsibility in Modern View: Trimming Down the Failure of Governance
- Corporate Misfeasance and Accountability
- Insiders and Conflicts of Fiduciary Duties
- Corruption and Self-Dealing
- Integrity of Corporate Financial Reporting and Other Corporate Information
- Fraud Controls and Unraveling of Corporate Crimes
- Enforcing Integrity and Strengthening of Corporate Legal Framework
