

Reaching Greater Heights

At Crowe we are committed to a people-focused culture, we help our people excel and grow from strength to strength.

Our team comes from all sectors, businesses and backgrounds. They join us, and more importantly, stay with us because Crowe is where they can realise their potential and succeed whilst making a positive difference to our clients, communities and each other.

Assistant Manager, Technical & Training (Accounting Standards Compliance & Development)

Responsibilities:

- Conduct research and identify inconsistencies relating to preparation of financial statement & financial reporting.
- Has little experience in producing physical and virtual in-house training courses.

Requirements:

- Degree in Accounting or those with professional qualification.
- At least 5 years of external audit experience.
- Familiar with accounting and auditing standards.

Ready to grow with Crowe?

Send in your resume to recruit@crowe.my!