

The Economic Scenario

The unprecedented economic contraction arising from the Covid-19 pandemic continues unabated for another year and the Government is likely to focus on structural issues in Budget 2022 to accelerate business recovery and continuity in the mid-term and long term. The upcoming 12th Malaysian Plan for the 2021-2025 period, and Budget 2022 are expected to address issues including human capital policies and the United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The continued measures in addressing the pandemic and recovery of impacted business sectors are causing a severe dent in the country's revenues, and at the same time rising corporate and household debt raises concerns. Targeted tax measures are likely to be introduced while providing relief and incentivising sectors that are severely impacted may be the focus.

All these developments should translate into further plans and changes in the coming Budget 2022 to be presented by the Finance Minister in Quarter 4 this year. To bring some insights and perspectives to our fellow professionals, The Malaysian Institute of Certified Public Accountants (MICPA) together with the Chartered Tax Institute of Malaysia (CTIM) and the Malaysian Institute of Accountants (MIA), will once again jointly publish the 2022 annual Budget Commentary and Tax Information booklet for our members.
